SCHEDULE "A"

ADDITIONAL TERMS

The tenancy created by the Lease (as defined below) is governed by the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"). In this schedule, "Schedules" means all addenda (each an "Addendum"), schedules and/or additional terms attached to the Standard Form of Lease, to which this Schedule A is attached (the "Standard Form").

A. GENERAL

1. LEASE

In this Schedule, "Lease" has the same meaning as "tenancy agreement", "lease" or such other form of written agreement by and between a "tenant" and a "landlord" (or a "lessee" and a "lessor") as may be used in the Act and shall collectively refer to the Standard Form, its Schedules and all Addenda.

2. PARTIES

In this Schedule, the terms "you", "your", "Resident" and "Tenant" refer to all Tenants identified as such in the Standard Form. The terms "we," "us,", "our", "Owner" and "Landlord" refer to the Landlord identified as such in the Standard Form (or any of Landlord's successors' in interest or assigns).

3. OCCUPANTS

The Tenant agrees that only the persons who are set out in the Lease shall be permitted to occupy the rental unit. The parties agree that if any other person(s) other than those who are set out in the Lease occupy the rental unit that same shall be a substantial interference with the lawful rights, privileges and interests of the Landlord and could result in legal action being commenced by the Landlord to end the tenancy created by this Lease (the "Tenancy"). The Landlord reserves the right to approve an increase in the number of occupants in the rental unit, without waiving any of its rights under this provision.

4. RENT DEPOSIT

In the case of multiple Residents, the rent deposit shall not be returned until the final Resident has vacated the rental unit and the Owner shall issue any refund cheque in the name of all Residents. Where there is more than one Resident, it is all the Residents' responsibility to allocate any refunded amount between themselves.

5. RENT INCREASES

Rent increases are to be communicated by the Landlord to the Tenant in accordance with the Act. Rent can be increased 12 months after the Tenant first takes occupancy of the rental unit or 12 months after the last rent increase under this Lease. For clarity, the Tenancy shall only be subject to restrictions or controls upon rent increases which may be applicable to the Tenancy or rental unit from time to time in accordance with the Act and/or Applicable Laws.

6. KEYS AND ACCESS DEVICES

You will be provided with 1 rental unit key(s)/access card(s), 1 mailbox key(s) and 2 FOBs. The cost to replace these devices are $100.00 for each unit key/access card, $15.00 for each mailbox key, and $100.00 for each FOB. These fees are non-refundable.

7. FURNITURE AND APPLIANCES

If the Owner supplies the appliances for the rental unit, you will not bring or allow to be brought into the rental unit and/or within the building, the lands or any common areas comprising the rental complex which the rental unit is located (collectively the "Rental Complex"), any stove, refrigerator, microwave, freezer, dishwasher or air conditioner without prior written consent from us. You will use only those appliances supplied by us, and permission must be obtained in writing from the Owner for the use of any other appliances.

8. RENT AND CHARGES

The payment of any rent or amount due and payable under the Lease (collectively, "Rent") in cash is not permitted without our prior written permission. Rent shall be paid using the following methods as determined by the Landlord from time to time: Cheque, Credit Card, Electronic Funds Transfer, Wire Transfer, Money Order or Pre-Authorized Payment. You will not withhold, set off, or abate any Rent. All monetary obligations to be paid under this Lease by you, shall be considered Rent for the purposes of this Lease. If the Rental Complex has a drop box, it is provided only as a convenience to the Residents. The use of the drop box for payment of Rent or any other amounts is at the sole risk of loss or theft of the Resident. Formal notice under the Lease may not be delivered using the drop box. If any payment placed in the drop box is lost prior to receipt by the Owner, the Resident agrees to immediately replace the payment in full at Tenant's sole cost. The Resident is strongly encouraged to make all payments directly to the Owner.

9. LATE FEES

Tenants are required to pay rent on time on the 1st day of each month as outlined in their Lease. Failure to pay rent on time may result in a late fee being charged to Tenant for each occurrence of late payment in rent if permitted under the Act.

10. NSF FEES

If a Tenant's payment is returned due to non-sufficient funds, the Landlord will charge an NSF Fee to the Tenant if permitted under the Act.

11. UTILITIES

Unless provided otherwise in the Lease, you will pay for all utilities, related deposits, and any charges, fees, or services on such utilities and you will enter into an agreement with the appropriate utility supplier, where applicable. You must not allow utilities to be disconnected including disconnection for not paying your bills. Utilities used in the rental unit may be used only for normal household purposes and must not be wasted. If your electricity is ever interrupted, you must use only battery-operated lighting and heating devices.

12. INSURANCE

The Landlord does not maintain insurance or carry insurance coverage to cover any loss or damage by the Tenant or the Tenant's guests or occupants of the rental unit with respect to liability, personal injury, damage or loss of personal property as a result of, without limitation, fire, smoke, rain, flood, water, pipe leaks, hail, ice, snow, lightning, wind, explosions, earthquake, interruption of utilities, theft, hurricane, negligence or willful acts of others unless otherwise required by law). You hereby fully release the Owner in respect of Claims (as defined below) you or any occupant of the rental unit, or any of your invitee(s) or guest(s) may suffer from all or any of the above. We require that you maintain your own insurance in accordance with the Insurance Addendum.

Failure to maintain any insurance throughout the entire term of the Lease (the "Term") as provided for in this Section 12 and the Insurance Addendum, may result in the termination of the Tenancy and eviction and/or any other remedies as provided herein or pursuant to the Act and Applicable Laws. You acknowledge and agree that no portion of the Rent paid by you under this Lease will be applied to the Owner's insurance policies and that you are in no way a co-insured under any such policy(s) maintained by the Landlord and no insurable interest is conferred on you under any polices of insurance carried by the Owner and you have no right to receive proceeds of any of those policies.

13. LOCKS AND LATCHES

Section 6 of this Schedule A sets out the keys, access cards and FOBs provided to you at no charge. You will be charged for any additional keys, access cards or FOBs that you request, lose or damage. You must pay for all repairs or replacements arising from misuse or damage by you or your family, occupants, or guests to any access devices in the Rental Complex. You may be required to pay for such repair costs in advance of our doing such work.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

14. INTEREST

If permitted by the Act and Applicable Laws, interest shall be charged on all overdue amounts payable under the Lease as further set out in Section 46 of this Schedule A.

B. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

15. EARLY MOVEOUT

Responsibility for Re-Rental. If you, by failing to abide by any terms or conditions of this Lease, effectively deny the Owner the ability to re-let the rental unit and to provide occupancy immediately upon termination of this Lease, then you may be liable for any consequential rental loss and damages that we may sustain subject to the Act and Applicable Laws.

Abandonment of Rental Unit. If you abandon the unit without complying with the termination requirements of this Lease and the Act, you may be liable for expenses including, but not limited to, commissions, advertising, administration costs, storage fees and all costs of repair and cleaning the rental unit, in each case that we incur in addition to any Rent payable under the Lease following such abandonment, and all damages incurred by us, including but not limited to the cost of an application to the applicable residential tenancy board of review to determine such issues in the course of obtaining legal vacant possession and re-renting the rental unit.

16. REIMBURSEMENT

You must promptly reimburse us in full, for any Claims including loss, damage, government fines, or cost of repairs or service due in each case in respect of any part of the Rental Complex, that were caused by you, your guests, occupants and/or invitees. In addition, we are not liable for, and you must pay for, repairs, replacement costs, and damage to the following: (1) damage to doors, windows, or screens; (2) damage from windows or doors left open; and (3) damage from wastewater stoppages caused by improper objects in lines exclusively serving your rental unit. We may require payment at any time, including advance payment for repairs to any of the above for which you are responsible. Any delay by us in demanding sums you owe under this Section 16 is not a waiver by us of any of our rights or remedies under this Lease, including this Section 16.

17. PROPERTY LEFT IN RENTAL UNIT

If the rental unit is vacated for any reason (including in accordance with a notice of termination, a mutual agreement, or an order of the applicable residential tenancy board of review terminating the Lease or evicting the Tenant) any goods or other personal property remaining in the rental unit (collectively, "Tenant Goods"), may be sold, retained, or otherwise disposed of by the Owner without the payment of any compensation to the Tenant in accordance with this Section 17. The Tenant shall pay for all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord to remove such Tenant Goods.

If the Landlord believes on reasonable grounds, you have abandoned the rental unit, the Landlord may either (i) obtain an order terminating the Lease; or (ii) give notice to you and to the applicable residential tenancy board of review of the Landlord's intention to dispose of the Tenant Goods abandoned in the rental unit. Subject to compliance with the Act and Applicable Laws, the Landlord may sell, retain or otherwise dispose of any Tenant Goods 30 days after obtaining the above noted order or providing notice as required.

In order to claim the Tenant's Goods within the above noted 30-day period, you must pay the Landlord's costs of removing and storing the Tenant Goods, after which, the Landlord shall promptly deliver possession of the Tenant Goods. You may also be required to pay an amount equal to the Rent during this period as the rental unit will not be available for use by other parties ("Storage Rent").

The Landlord will pay to you, within six months of you receiving notice from the Landlord or of the order being issued, the proceeds of the sale of any Tenant Goods, provided such sale proceeds exceed the Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for moving, storing, securing or selling the Tenant Goods and for the above -noted Storage Rent.

Animals removed after surrender, abandonment, or eviction of the rental unit, may be kenneled or turned over to local authorities or humane societies.

18. DELAY OF OCCUPANCY

If the Landlord is unable to deliver vacant possession of the rental unit to the Tenant on the commencement date of this Lease as set out in the Standard Form (the "Commencement Date") for any reason, including but not limited to, the failure of the existing Tenant to vacate, construction or maintenance delays, the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant in any way for any reason. If the Landlord is unable to deliver vacant possession of the rental unit to the Tenant on the Commencement Date, the Lease shall not be affected in any way, except as set out in this Section 18. The parties agree that the limit of the Landlord's liability to Tenant with respect to the failure to deliver vacant possession of the rental unit to the Tenant on the Commencement Date of this Lease is limited to the daily rental rate based on the monthly Rent required to be paid by the Tenant, which Rent shall be abated until the Landlord is able to deliver vacant possession of the rental unit to the Tenant.

The Landlord will use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver vacant possession of the rental unit to the Tenant on the Commencement Date and the Tenant agrees that the Tenant will be responsible for the payment of Rent upon their receipt of a written notice from the Landlord stating that vacant possession is available to the Tenant.

The parties agree that if the Landlord is unable to complete work or renovations that may be required pursuant to the Lease by the Commencement Date, the Landlord will be entitled to complete any required work in a reasonable period of time following the Commencement Date. The Tenant agrees to reasonably cooperate with the Landlord for the work to be completed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if vacant possession is not provided to the Tenant on the Commencement Date, the Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice in writing to the Landlord.

19. DISCLOSURE RIGHTS

You hereby authorize us to collect, retain and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, S.C. 2000, c.5. If someone requests information on you or your rental history for law-enforcement, governmental, or business purposes, we may provide it in accordance with Applicable Laws. Personal information may also be disclosed in connection with the administration of the Landlord's business including, but not limited to, in connection with business transactions, obtaining financing, utilities, communications and building security.

20. STATUS OF TENANT

Only an individual who has entered into this Lease with the Landlord is a Tenant. Anyone who may reside in the rental unit from time to time as a guest or invitee of the Resident, unless written permission is granted by us and such person is added as a Resident, shall not be a Resident and is not entitled to any form of notice required under this Lease or the Act.

C. THROUGHOUT THE TERM OF THE LEASE

20. LIMITATIONS ON CONDUCT

You agree to use the rental unit for no other purpose than a residential dwelling exclusively for the Resident(s) or individuals listed on the Rental Application. The rental unit and other areas reserved by Landlord for your private use must be kept clean. Trash must be disposed of at least weekly in appropriate receptacles in accordance with Applicable Laws, and the Building Rules (as defined below). Passageways may be used only for entry or exit. Any exercise rooms, swimming pool areas, storerooms, amenity/entertainment rooms, and similar areas must be used with care in accordance with the Building Rules and posted signs. Glass containers are prohibited in all common areas of the Rental Complex. You, your occupants, or guests may not: (i) use candles, kerosene lamps or kerosene heaters, gas powered generators in the Rental Complex, without our prior written approval, which will be provided in our sole discretion; (ii) cook on balconies or outside of the rental unit (other than in designated outdoor common areas or any provided barbeques); and/or (iii) solicit business or contributions within any part of the Rental Complex. Conducting any kind of business in your rental unit or in the Rental Complex is prohibited except that any lawful business conducted “at home” by computer, mail, or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients, or other business associates do not come to your rental unit for business purposes. We may regulate: (a) the use of patios, balconies, and porches; (b) the conduct of furniture movers and delivery persons within the Rental Complex; and (c) recreational activities in common areas of the Rental Complex, all in accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

You will be liable for damage caused by you or any guests or occupants to any portion of the Rental Complex. We may exclude from the Rental Complex guests or others who, in our judgment, have been violating Applicable Laws, are a safety risk, are violating this Lease or any Building Rules, or disturbing other Residents, neighbors, visitors, or any representatives of the Landlord. We may also exclude from any outside area or common area of the Rental Complex a person who refuses to show photo identification or refuses to identify himself or herself as a Resident, occupant, or guest of a specific Resident of the Rental Complex.

If you commit, or permit any person for whom you are responsible (including your guests or invitees) to commit, an illegal act or carry on an illegal trade, business or occupation in the rental unit or the Rental Complex we may have the right to terminate the Lease, in accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws.

21. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

You and your occupants or guests may not engage in the following activities in any part of the Rental Complex including the rental unit: (a) behaving in a loud or obnoxious manner; (b) disturbing or threatening the rights, comfort, health, safety, or convenience of others (including our agents and employees) in or near the Rental Complex; (c) disrupting our business operations; (d) any act or thing in breach of the Crime and Drug Free Housing Addendum; (e) threatening violence; (f) possessing a weapon prohibited by Applicable Laws; (g) discharging a firearm in or near the Rental Complex; (h) displaying or possessing a firearm, knife, or other weapon, in a way that may alarm others; (i) storing anything having gas appliances, flammable fuel, or anything that may increase our insurance costs; (j) tampering with utilities or telecommunications; (k) bringing hazardous materials into the Rental Complex; (l) injuring our reputation by making bad faith allegations against us to others; and/or (m) engaging in any unlawful or illegal activity.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

22. PARKING

We may regulate the time, manner, and place of parking vehicles, cars, trucks, motorcycles, bicycles, boats, trailers, and recreational vehicles by anyone within the Rental Complex. We may have unauthorized or illegally parked vehicles towed. A vehicle is unauthorized or illegally parked in the Rental Complex if it:

(a) has a flat tire or other condition rendering it inoperable;

(b) is on jacks, blocks or has wheel(s) missing;

(c) has no current license plate, is not insured, or has no current registration sticker;

(d) takes up more than one parking space;

(e) belongs to a Resident or occupant who has surrendered or abandoned their rental unit;

(f) is parked in a marked handicap space without the required permit displayed;

(g) is parked in a space marked for manager, staff, or guest at the office;

(h) blocks another vehicle from exiting;

(i) is parked in a fire lane or designated “no parking” area;

(j) is parked in a space for other Resident(s) or unit(s) (including retail/commercial spaces);

(k) is parked on the grass, sidewalk, or patio or other non-designated areas;

(l) blocks garbage trucks from access to a dumpster;

(m) is parked in a designated location during a non-designated time; and/or

(n) otherwise does not comply with the Building Rules (as defined below).

23. RESIDENT SAFETY AND PROPERTY LOSS

You and all occupants and guests must exercise due care for your own and others’ safety and security, including in the use of smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, keyed deadbolt locks, keyless bolting devices, window latches, and other safety or security devices. You agree to make every effort to follow the security guidelines which may be provided to you from time to time and/or are set out in the Building Rules.

24. STATUTORY NOTICE REGARDING SMOKE DETECTORS AND CARBON MONOXIDE DETECTORS

We will furnish a functional smoke detector and carbon monoxide (if applicable) detector

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

in the rental unit. We will test the smoke detector and carbon monoxide detector and provide working batteries (if applicable) when you first take possession. You must immediately report to us in writing if a smoke detector or a carbon monoxide detector is malfunctioning. Neither you nor others may disable, remove, or damage smoke detectors or carbon monoxide detectors.

25. TEMPERATURE

Unless we instruct otherwise, you must, for 24 hours a day, during any day where the outdoor temperature will be at or lower than zero degrees Celsius any time during such day:

(a) keep the rental unit heated to at least 10 degrees Celsius; and

(b) keep closed all exterior windows and balcony doors. You will be liable for any damage to our property and/or to the property of others if you fail to adhere to this Section 25.

26. CRIME OR EMERGENCY

You must dial 911 or immediately call local medical emergency, fire, or police personnel in case of accident, fire, smoke, or suspected criminal activity or other emergency involving imminent harm at the Rental Complex. You should then contact the Landlord.

Any security measures in place at the Rental Complex are not an express or implied warranty of security, or guarantee or assurance of any kind against crime or of reduced risk of crime. Unless otherwise provided by Applicable Laws, we are not liable to you or any guests or occupants for Claims (including injury, damage, or loss to person or property) caused by criminal conduct of other persons, including theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, or other crimes. We are not obliged to furnish security personnel, security lighting, security gates or fences, or other forms of security unless required by Applicable Laws. We are not responsible for obtaining criminal history checks on any Residents, occupants, guests, or contractors in the Rental Complex. If you or any occupant or guest is affected by a crime, you must make a written report to the Landlord and to the appropriate local law-enforcement agency. You must also furnish us with the law-enforcement agency's incident report number in connection with the above, upon request.

27. CONDITION OF THE PREMISES AND ALTERATIONS

You accept the rental unit, the Rental Complex and all fixtures, and furniture and other personal property located therein for your use, in an "as is" condition without any covenant, representation, or warranty by us. All implied warranties for fitness or use at law or otherwise, are hereby disclaimed by the parties to this Lease. You understand that items noted on a move in inspection form do not indicate an agreement by us to clean, repair or replace that noted item. All maintenance requests must be in writing and on a separate maintenance request form and will to the address set out on page one of the Lease. You must use customary diligence and care in maintaining the rental unit and all fixtures and property of the Owner located in the rental unit, and not damage or litter any areas of the Rental Complex. Unless authorized by Applicable Laws or by us in writing, you must not perform any repairs, painting, wallpapering, carpeting, electrical changes install, or otherwise alter any portion of the Rental Complex, including the rental unit. No holes or stickers are allowed inside or outside the rental unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we will permit a reasonable number of small nail holes for hanging pictures on sheetrock walls and in grooves of wood-paneled walls, unless the Building Rules state otherwise. No water furniture, bidets, washing machines, additional phone or TV-cable outlets, air conditioning units, alarm systems, or lock changes, additions, or rekeying is permitted in any part of the Rental Complex, unless permitted by Applicable Laws or consented to by us in writing. You agree not to alter, damage, or remove any property or fixtures in the Rental Complex (including alarm systems, smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, furniture, telephone and cable TV wiring, screens, locks, and security devices). When you move in, we will supply light bulbs for fixtures we furnish in the rental unit, including exterior fixtures operated from inside the rental unit, following which you will be responsible to replace them at your expense with bulbs of the same type and wattage. All light bulbs will be present and in working order upon move-out or the cost of replacing same will be deducted from any deposit(s) provided by you under the Lease. Your improvements to the rental unit (whether or not we consent to such improvements) become the property of the Landlord unless we agree otherwise in writing. Notwithstanding such ownership of any such alterations, we reserve the right to require you to remove same at your sole cost and expense by the end of the Term and return the rental unit to us in the same condition as it was provided to you.

28. REQUESTS, REPAIRS, AND MALFUNCTIONS

If you or any occupant needs to send a notice or request for repairs, installations, services, or security related matters, it must be in writing to our designated representative (except in case of fire, smoke, gas, explosion, overflowing sewage, uncontrollable running water, electrical shorts, or crime in progress). Our written notes on your oral request do not constitute a written request from you. The delivery of such a written notice does not obligate the Landlord to undertake any matter set out in such notice unless specifically required by this Lease, the Act or Applicable Laws.

Our compliance with or response to any oral request made by you does not waive the strict requirement for written notices under this Lease. You must promptly notify us in writing of: water leaks; broken windows, wet areas on floors, walls or ceilings; electrical problems; malfunctioning light fixtures; broken or missing locks or latches, toilets or faucets; and other conditions that pose a hazard to property, health, or safety. We may change or install utility lines or equipment serving the rental unit. We may tum off equipment and interrupt utilities as needed to avoid property damage or to perform work, in which case prior notice will be provided to the Tenant in accordance with the Act and

Applicable Laws. If utilities malfunction or are damaged by fire, water, or similar cause, you must notify us immediately. If available, air-conditioning problems are not emergencies. If air conditioning or other equipment malfunctions, you must notify us as soon as possible on a business day. We will act with customary diligence to make repairs and reconnections as required by Lease, the Act or Applicable Laws. Rent will not abate in whole or in part due to any interruption or cessation of equipment (including air conditioning units) set out in this Section 28.

29. FRUSTRATION OF CONTRACT

The Owner and the Resident mutually covenant and agree that if during the Term of this Lease, the rental unit becomes wholly or partly destroyed by fire or the elements (other than by the action or neglect of the Resident(s)) so as to render the Rental Complex and/or the rental unit wholly or partially unfit for occupancy, then until such damage is repaired, the Rent shall abate in accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws. Once the rental unit has been repaired and is fit for occupancy once again, the Owner will provide written notice to the Resident informing the Resident the date on which the payment of full Rent shall recommence.

30. SMOKING AND MARIJUANA

The Tenant agrees that the Tenant and the Tenant's guests or occupants of the rental unit shall comply with the No-Smoking Addendum signed by the parties.

31. ANIMALS

No animals (including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, rodents, and insects) are allowed, even temporarily, anywhere in the rental unit or the balance of the Rental Complex unless we have so authorized in writing. If we allow an animal, you must sign a separate Animal Addendum. If a pet becomes a problem in our sole opinion, then in accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws, we may require that the pet be removed from the Rental Complex notwithstanding the execution of such Animal Addendum.

If you have pets, companion, or service animals, they must be secured during all maintenance work being undertaken by us or our contractors in the rental unit. If such animals are not secured and pose any type of danger to us or our contractors, in our sole opinion, our contractors shall be entitled to leave the rental unit prior to the completion of the work and it shall be your sole responsibility to schedule a mutually agreeable time and date for the completion of the work after the animal has been secured for such rescheduled date.

32. RULES AND REGULATIONS

(a) The Tenant shall comply and cause every person over whom it has control to comply with the rules and regulations made by us governing the Rental Complex including the Building Handbook and the Community Policies, Rules, and

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

Regulations Addendum (collectively, the "Building Rules"). The Landlord shall have the right from time to time to make such amendments, deletions and additions as it so chooses. If the Building Rules conflict with any provisions of this Lease, the provisions of this Lease shall govern. The Landlord shall not be obligated to enforce the Building Rules and shall not be responsible to the Tenant for failure of any person to comply with the Building Rules.

(b) If a situation arises in which, based on a directive, bulletin, notice or other form of communication from a governmental or utility or public health authority or advice from a medical or other professional or based on the Landlord's reasonable determination, it is determined that occupants, Tenants, invitees or contractors are or may be exposed to imminent danger including, without limitation, from a disease, virus or other biological or physical agents that may be detrimental to human health including COVID-19, terrorism or a utility stoppage, or if the Landlord determines that there is a reasonable risk of same occurring in the Rental Complex (collectively, a "Health or Other Emergency"), then the Landlord may impose additional Building Rules including restricting or limiting access to all or part of the Rental Complex. The Landlord will not be default under this Lease:

i. by reason of anything it does pursuant to Section 32(b) in good faith;

ii. by reason of any decision, it makes in good faith in response to the Health or Other Emergency and will not be liable in contract, tort or on any other basis of liability statutory or otherwise, by reason of any actions, omissions or failure to act in connection with or as the result of a Health or Other Emergency; or

iii. if the Landlord, due to a Health or Other Emergency, acting in good faith, determines that it needs to suspend, reduce or restrict any services, in whole or in part including, but not limited to, janitorial services.

D. ASSIGNING OR SUBLETTING YOUR RENTAL UNIT

33. REPLACEMENTS AND SUBLETTING

Requests by a Resident to assign or sublet the rental unit must be in writing, signed by all Residents of the rental unit and specify:

(a) the location of the rental unit;

(b) if an assignment or sublet is being requested;

(c) the date of the proposed change of Tenancy; and

(d) the full names of any proposed assignees or subtenants.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

This request to assign or sublet shall be deemed to not have taken place and shall not be permitted to occur until: (i) such written request has been approved in writing by the Landlord in accordance with the Act; and (ii) the Landlord's rental application form has been properly completed by the proposed assignee or subtenant and delivered to the Landlord for approval.

A sublet shall not extend beyond the last day of the Term of this Lease. The current Resident shall pay any Rent arrears and for any damages to the rental unit before any assignment or sublet can occur.

To the extent permitted by the Act, notwithstanding any assignment or sublet of the Lease, the named Tenant in the Standard Form, shall remain jointly and severally liable under this Lease and shall not be released from performing any of the terms of this Lease. Such Tenant's liability shall continue notwithstanding any amendment of this Lease throughout the Term notwithstanding that the Landlord may collect Rent from the transferee or subtenant. If the Rent and any other consideration (net of reasonable out of pocket costs for commissions or other rental costs of Tenant) to be paid by the subtenant to Tenant exceeds the Rent payable by the Tenant under the Lease, the amount of such excess shall be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord upon receipt by Tenant.

For greater certainty this Section 33 does not address short-term rentals, short-term occupancies and/or other arrangements addressed in the Addendum Prohibiting Short Term Rentals, which Addendum shall govern all such arrangements.

E. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNER AND RESIDENT

34. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNER

We have no duty to repair the rental unit, its contents, or any portion of the Rental Complex, if a defective condition or any damage was caused by your acts or omission or by your guests, or others acting under your control, or if you unreasonably fail to allow us to access the rental unit to make such repairs or any pre-emptive maintenance.

You may not repair any portion of the rental unit or our property therein yourself and/or deduct the cost of such repairs from your Rent unless you have fully complied with the statutory requirements of the Act for doing so.

Under Applicable Laws, you must be current in your payment of Rent (including utilities) before exercising any remedy, statutory or otherwise, under the Lease.

35. WAIVER AND INDEMNITY

Save and except for damage caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord, or its agents, and to the extent permissible under the Act and Applicable Laws, the Tenant hereby waives and releases the Landlord and its directors, officers, agents and employees, contractors and any party defined as Landlord pursuant to the Act, together with their successors and assigns ("Landlord Parties") from any Claims including liability for damage or loss to any persons or property, which occurs in or in connection with the rental unit and/or or the balance of the Rental Complex, (including the building and its facilities, grounds or parking lot). The Landlord Parties shall not be responsible for any Claims including loss of, and/or damage, to the Tenant's property in the rental unit or the balance of the Rental Complex. The Landlord Parties are not responsible for Claims including damages, inconvenience or any other cost or charge with respect to any loss or damage occasioned in the rental unit.

The Tenant hereby indemnifies and saves harmless the Landlord Parties for and in relation to any and all Claims including loss or damage howsoever caused by the Tenant or the Tenant's guests, visitors or invitees (including through neglect, misuse or carelessness) and the Tenant shall indemnify and save harmless the Landlord Parties for and from all Claims including actions, causes of action, or claims for damage or injury of any nature, kind and description whatsoever, arising out of or in connection with the Tenant's occupation of the rental unit and/or use of the Rental Complex including, the facilities, parking areas and grounds located in, upon, or associated with the rental unit and/or the Rental Complex, except where caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord Parties.

If the Tenant, at any time during the course of the Term of the Tenancy or any contractual or statutory renewal thereof, fails to obtain or keep in full force and effect, insurance as required by this Lease and any Addendum, the Tenant hereby indemnifies and saves harmless the Landlord Parties for and in relation to any and all Claims including loss or damage to any persons or property howsoever caused, if such loss would have been covered by such an insurance policy.

36. DEFAULT BY RESIDENT

You will be in default of this Lease if you or any guest or occupant violates any terms of this Lease including any Addendum, including but not limited to the following violations:

(a) you do not pay Rent or other amounts that you owe when due;

(b) you or any guest or occupant violates the Building Rules, or Applicable Laws (including related to fire, safety, health, or criminal laws), regardless of whether an arrest or conviction occurs.

(c) you abandon the rental unit;

(d) you or any occupant is arrested, convicted, or given deferred adjudication for a criminal offense involving actual or potential physical harm to a person, or involving or in breach of the Crime and Drug Free Housing Addendum; and/or

(e) you or any guest or occupant engages in any of the prohibited conduct described in Section 21 of this Schedule A.

37. HOLDOVER

If the Resident fails to vacate the rental unit on or before the time specified in a proper notice under the Act given by either party, the Resident may be required to pay Rent to the Owner during any overholding period at rate equal to the lesser of 125% of the current Rent or rate permitted to be charged under the Act in such circumstance.

F. WHEN MOVING OUT

38. NOTICE OF TERMINATION

Before moving out, you must give advance written notice of termination of the Lease as provided below. Your notice of termination will in no way release you from liability for all of your obligations contained in this Lease, including, without limitation, your obligations in respect of heating the rental unit and the payment of Rent for the full Term of the Lease or renewal term. You will still be responsible for the entire Term if you move out early, except if otherwise agreed to by us in writing at our sole and unfettered discretion. Your notice of termination must comply with each of the following:

(a) We must receive advance written notice of your move-out date. The advance notice must be, at a minimum, the greater of the following: (i) 30 days prior to the expiration of this Lease; (ii) the time period required under the applicable provisions of this Lease; or (iii) the period required under the Act. Oral notice of termination will not be accepted.

(b) Your notice of termination must not terminate the Lease sooner than the end of the Term or renewal period.

(c) Your notice is not acceptable if it does not comply with all of the above. Please include the following information in your notice of termination:

i. the date the notice was given to the Owner;

ii. the names of all Residents;

iii. the address of the rental unit;

iv. the date of termination of the rental period; and

v. the notice must be signed by all Residents.

You must obtain from our representative written acknowledgment that we received your notice of termination.

39. MOVE-OUT PROCEDURES

The move-out date cannot be changed unless we each agree in writing to this change. You will not move out before the Term or renewal period ends unless all Rent for the entire Term or renewal period is paid in full. You will not stay beyond the date you are supposed to move out. You must give us the postal address, in writing, for each Resident's forwarding address.

40. CLEANING

You must thoroughly clean the rental unit, including doors, windows, furniture, bathrooms, kitchen appliances (inside and out), balconies, parking spaces, and storage units. You must properly dispose of all garbage and remove all of your furnishings from the rental unit. You must follow move-out cleaning instructions if they have been provided. If you do not clean adequately, you may be responsible for reasonable cleaning charges.

If you have not cleaned the rental unit after the rental unit has been vacated, or the Tenancy has been terminated, the Landlord may, at its option, complete the cleaning on your behalf and you will reimburse us for this service.

41. MOVE OUT INSPECTION

You must meet with our representative for a move-out inspection. Any statements or estimates by our representative are subject to our review and approval before submitting an invoice to you.

42. CHARGES

You will be liable for the following charges, if applicable, upon expiration of the Lease: unpaid Rent; unpaid utilities; outstanding service charges; repairs or damages caused by negligence, carelessness, accident, or abuse, including stickers, scratches, tears, burns, stains, or unapproved holes; replacement cost of our property that was in or attached to the rental unit and is missing; replacing dead or missing smoke-detector or carbon monoxide detector batteries; utilities for repairs or cleaning; missing or burned-out light bulbs; removing or rekeying unauthorized security devices or alarm systems; packing, removing, or storing Tenant Goods removed or stored under Section 17 of this Schedule A; removing illegally parked vehicles; special trips for trash removal caused by parked vehicles blocking dumpsters; false security-alarm charges unless due to our negligence; animal related charges under Section 31 of this Schedule A; government fees or fines against us for violation (by you, your occupants, or guests) of local ordinances relating to smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, false alarms, recycling, or other matters; returned cheque charges; and other sums due under this Lease (including all Addendums) permissible under the Act or Applicable Laws.

You acknowledge and agree that any cleaning or damages due to smoke damage from any source, including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, pipes, marijuana, cannabis, candles or incense, shall not be considered to be normal wear and tear and that you will be responsible for all costs associated with same set out in the No-Smoking Addendum.

You will be responsible for all charges related to replacing all lost or missing keys, FOBs, and access devices referenced in Section 6 of this Schedule A if you fail to return them on or before your actual move-out date.

43. DEPOSIT RETURN, SURRENDER, AND ABANDONMENT

Your rent deposit will be remitted in accordance with the Act, which may include by application to your last month of Rent or by return cheque or money transfer. If you have been in arrears of Rent, your rental deposit will be applied to the arrears after the Lease is terminated, and you surrender the rental unit, or after we learn of your abandonment. If there is more than one Resident, the rent deposit will be applied in accordance with Section 4 of this Schedule A.

At the Owner's option in writing, you will be deemed to have surrendered the rental unit when: (i) the move-out date has passed and no one is living in the rental unit in our reasonable judgment; or (ii) all keys, FOBs, and access devices listed in the Lease have been turned over, whichever date occurs first.

Surrender and abandonment of the rental unit by you gives us the immediate right to: (i) clean up, make repairs in, and re-let the rental unit; and (ii) remove property left in the rental unit in accordance with the terms of this Lease and the Act.

G. GENERAL CLAUSES

44. MISCELLANEOUS

Neither we nor any of our representatives have made any oral promises, representations, or agreements. The Lease is the entire agreement between you and us. Our representatives (including management personnel, employees, and agents) have no authority to waive, amend, or terminate this Lease or any part of it, unless in writing, and no authority to make promises, representations, or agreements that impose security duties or other obligations on us or our representative designated in writing to you as a party who may represent the Landlord, including an employee of our property manager or such party as we may designate in writing to you from time to time. No action or omission of our representatives will be considered a waiver of any subsequent violation, default, or time or place of performance. Except when notice or demand is required by law, you waive any notice and demand for performance from us if you default. Written notice to or from our managers constitutes notice to or from us. Any person giving a notice under this Lease should retain a copy that was given. All notices delivered under the Lease will be in accordance with the Act.

Exercising one remedy will not constitute an election or waiver of other remedies. All remedies of the Landlord under the Lease and at law are cumulative. No employee, agent, or management company is personally liable for any of the Landlord's contractual, statutory, or other obligations merely by virtue of acting on Landlord's behalf. Neither an invalid clause(s) nor the omission of initials by any party on one or more pages of any Schedule or Addendum invalidates or otherwise impacts this Lease. All notices and documents may be in English and, at our option, in any language that you read or speak. All provisions regarding our non-liability and non-duty apply to our employees, agents, and management companies. This Lease is subordinate or superior to existing and future recorded mortgages, at lender's option. You shall attorn to all existing and future recorded mortgages, at our lender's option. This Lease and the Tenancy shall not be registered in any public registry as such, by notice or by caveat. All Lease obligations must be performed in the City where the rental unit is located. The parties attorn to the courts of the jurisdiction in which the rental unit is located. The Tenant warrants that it has not dealt with any agent or broker representing or purporting to represent the Landlord in connection with its leasing of the Premises and the Tenant shall be responsible for, and indemnify and save harmless the Landlord from, any brokerage fees, commissions or other amounts relating to this Lease.

45. FORCE MAJEURE

If we are prevented from completing performances of any obligations hereunder by any matter beyond the reasonable control of the Landlord, including an act of God, strikes, viruses (including COVID-19), disease, war, acts of terrorism, riots, flood, fire, hurricane, tornado, sabotage, then we shall be excused from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder during the occurrence of such matter, to the full extent allowed under Applicable Laws. Furthermore, if such an event damages any portion of the Rental Complex, materially affects its habitability, by some or all Residents, we reserve the right to terminate the Lease and you agree to excuse us from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder, to the extent permitted under Applicable Laws.

46. PAYMENTS

Payment of all sums of money due under this Lease is an independent covenant. At our option and without notice, we may apply money received (other than utility payments subject to governmental regulations) first to any of your unpaid obligations, then to current Rent regardless of notations on cheques or money orders and regardless of when the obligations arose. All sums other than Rent are due upon our demand.

47. SEVERABLE

If any provision of this Lease is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable (including a violation of the Act) in any respect, such determination shall not impair or affect the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof, and each provision is hereby declared to be separate, severable and distinct.

48. BINDING NATURE OF TENANCY AGREEMENT

To the extent permitted under the Act and Applicable Laws, the Owner and the Resident mutually agree that everything contained in this Lease will extend to and be binding on the respective heirs, executors, administrators, and successors of each party to this Lease. The contents shall be read with all grammatical and gender changes necessary.

49. INTERPRETATION

All capitalized terms used, but not defined in any Schedule, shall have the respective meanings set out in the Standard Form. In this Schedule and the Lease: (i) the words “including”, “includes” and “include” mean “including (or includes or include), without limitation”; (ii) the phrase “the total aggregate of”, “the total of” or a phrase of similar meaning means “the aggregate (or total), without duplication, of”: (iii) unless otherwise specified, the words “Article” and “Section” followed by a number mean and refer to the specified Article or Section of this Schedule A; (iv) in the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, unless otherwise expressly stated, the word “from” means “from and including” and the word “until” means “to and including”; (v) unless otherwise expressly stated, the phrase “sole discretion” means “sole, subjective, absolute and unfettered discretion” and will not be subject to any restriction, limitation, challenge or review of any kind whatsoever at any time by the other party hereto, any court or any other third party; (vi) except as otherwise provided in this Lease any reference in this Lease to a statute refers to such statute and all Building Rules made under it, as it or they may have been or may from time to time be amended or re-enacted; and (vii) whenever payments are to be made, an action is to be taken on a day which is not a business day, then such payment shall be made, such action shall be taken and such date will be deemed to fall on the next succeeding business day.

50. CONFLICT

Subject to the requirements of the Act, in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the terms of this Schedule A and the Standard Form, the terms of this Schedule A shall govern. If a term of this Schedule conflicts with the Act, such conflicting term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced.

51. SURVIVAL

All indemnities and releases set out in the Lease, all outstanding financial obligations of a party under then Lease, which were then due and payable at the time of any termination or expiry of the Tenancy, shall unless otherwise specifically set out in the Lease or the Act to the contrary, survive the termination of the Lease or expiry of the Term of the Lease.

52. INTEREST AND COSTS

Subject to the requirements of the Act, Tenant shall pay to the Landlord upon demand: (a) interest at the rate prescribed by the Act on any Rent required to be paid hereunder from the due date for payment until fully paid and satisfied; and (b) the Landlord's then current reasonable administration charge for each notice of default given by the Landlord to the Tenant under this Lease. Where the Landlord is required to undertake any matter or thing under this Lease due to a default and/or act or omission and/or request, by Tenant, the Landlord's third-party costs plus an administration fee equal to 10% of such cost may be charged by the Landlord, subject to the Act. The Tenant shall pay and indemnify the Landlord against damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, all legal costs on a solicitor and client basis) incurred in enforcing the terms of this Lease, or with respect to any matter or thing which is the obligation of the Tenant under this Lease, or in respect of which the Tenant has agreed to insure or to indemnify the Landlord.

SECURITY GUIDELINES

1. SECURITY GUIDELINES

The following are some important safety guidelines. We recommend that you follow these guidelines and use common sense in practicing safe conduct. Inform all other occupants in your rental unit, including any children you may have, about these guidelines.

PERSONAL SECURITY WHILE INSIDE YOUR RENTAL UNIT

(a) Lock your doors and windows - even while you are inside.

(b) When answering the door, see who is there by looking through a window or peephole. If you do not know the person, first talk with him or her without opening the door. Do not open the door if you have any doubts.

(c) If children (who are old enough to take care of themselves) are left alone in your rental unit, tell them to refuse to let anyone inside while you are gone - regardless of whether the person is a stranger or a rental unit maintenance or management employee.

(d) Do not put your name, address, or phone number on your key ring, FOB, etc.

(e) If you are concerned because you have lost your key or because someone you distrust has a key, ask the management to rekey the locks or reset the FOBs. Management may, at their option, rekey for you as long as you pay for the rekeying or resetting.

(f) Dial 911 for emergencies. If the 911 number does not operate in your area, keep phone numbers handy for the police, fire, and emergency medical services. If an emergency arises, call the appropriate governmental authorities first, then call the management.

(g) Check your smoke detector and carbon monoxide detector monthly to make sure they are working properly, and the batteries are still okay.

(h) Check your door locks, window latches, and other devices regularly to be sure they are working properly.

(i) If your doors or windows are unsecured due to break-ins or malfunctioning locks or latches, stay with friends or neighbours until the problem is fixed.

(j) Immediately report to management in writing, any needed repairs of locks, latches, doors, windows, smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, and alarm systems.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

(k) Immediately report to management in writing, any malfunction of other safety devices outside your rental unit, such as broken gate locks, burned-out lights in stairwells and parking lots, blocked passages, broken railings, etc.

(l) Close curtains, blinds, and window shades at night.

PERSONAL SECURITY WHILE OUTSIDE YOUR RENTAL UNIT

(a) Lock your doors while you are gone. Lock any door handle lock, keyed deadbolt lock, sliding door pin lock, sliding door handle latch, and sliding door bar that you have.

(b) Leave a radio or TV playing softly while you are gone.

(c) Close and latch your windows while you are gone, particularly when you are on vacation.

(d) Tell your roommate or spouse where you are going and when you will be back.

(e) Do not walk alone at night.

(f) Do not hide a key under the doormat or a nearby flowerpot. These are the first places a burglar will look.

(g) Do not give entry keys, codes, or electronic gate cards to anyone.

(h) Use lamp timers when you go out in the evening or go away on vacation. They can be purchased at most hardware stores.

(i) Let the manager and your friends know if you will be gone for an extended time. Ask your neighbours to watch your rental unit since the management cannot assume that responsibility.

(j) While on vacation, temporarily stop your newspaper and mail delivery, or have your mail and newspaper picked up daily by a friend.

(k) Carry your door key in your hand, whether it is daylight or dark, when walking to your entry door. You are more vulnerable when looking for your keys at the door.

PERSONAL SECURITY WHILE USING YOUR CAR

(a) Lock your car doors while driving. Lock your car doors and roll up the windows when leaving your car parked.

(b) Do not leave exposed items in your car, such as phones, personal items, wrapped packages, briefcases, or purses.

(c) Do not leave your keys in the car.

(d) Carry your key ring in your hand whenever you are walking to your car - whether it is daylight or dark and whether you are at home, school, work, or on vacation.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

(e) Always park in a well-lit area. If possible, try to park your car in an off-street parking area rather than on the street.

(f) Check the backseat before getting into your car.

(g) Be careful when stopping at gas stations or automatic-teller machines at night - or anytime when you suspect danger.

PERSONAL SECURITY AWARENESS

No security system is failsafe. Even the best system cannot prevent crime. Always act as if security systems do not exist since they are subject to malfunction, tampering, and human error. We disclaim any express or implied warranties of security. The best safety measures are the ones you perform as a matter of common sense and habit. You are solely responsible for your own personal safety and the safety of your personal property at all times while on the premises. We do not provide any security for you personally, the members of your household or guests, and do not provide security of your personal property. Any security you see on the property, including cameras or gates, are for the sole benefit of our property.

GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

To:

Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership (the "Owner")

In consideration of Owner renting the Rented Premises to the Resident pursuant to a Lease Agreement between Owner and Resident dated 11/22/2025 (as such Agreement is amended, extended, modified, assigned or otherwise altered from time to time, the "Lease"), a copy of which has been delivered to the undersigned (the "Guarantor"), it agrees as follows:

At all times during the term of the Lease and following the termination or expiration of the Lease for any reason (including without limitation a Bankruptcy Reason (as defined in Schedule A hereto), the Guarantor will: (a) make the due and punctual payment of all rent and all other sums and amounts of any kind whatsoever payable under the Lease by the Resident whether to the Owner or otherwise; (ii) effect prompt and complete observance and performance of each and every one of the terms, covenants, agreements and conditions contained in the Lease on the part of the Resident to be kept, observed and performed; and (iii) indemnify and save the Owner harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, legal fees and disbursements) actions and causes of action incurred by the Owner or to which the Owner becomes subject as a result of or arising out of any default by the Resident under the Lease.

The following key terms and Schedule A, form part of this Agreement.

RESIDENT NAME(S):	Aidan Keaveny and (the "Resident")

SCHEDULE "A"

GUARANTOR ADDITIONAL TERMS

1. This guarantee is absolute and unconditional and the obligations of the Guarantor shall not be released, discharged, mitigated, impaired or affected by: (a) any extension of time, indulgences or modifications which the Owner extends to or makes with the Resident in respect of the observance or performance of any of the covenants or obligations of the Resident under the Lease, all of which may occur without notice to the Guarantor; (b) any waiver by or failure of the Owner to enforce any of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Lease; (c) any transfer, assignment, sublet or other parting of all or any part of possession under the Lease relating to all or any portion of the Rented Premises (a "Transfer") by the Resident or by any trustee, receiver or liquidator of the Resident or of the assets of the Resident; (d) any consent which the Owner gives to the Resident, which may occur without notice to the Guarantor; (e) any amendment to the Lease, regardless of whether such shall occur without notice to the Guarantor, or any waiver by the Resident of any of its rights under the Lease; (f) the expiry or deemed expiry of the term of the Lease or any Bankruptcy Reason; (g) any renewal or extension of the Lease pursuant to an option of the Resident or otherwise, the Guarantor hereby agreeing that its obligations hereunder shall continue to apply during the Term, as renewed or extended; (i) any loss of or in respect of any security received by the Owner from the Resident or any other person, firm or corporation, whether or not occasioned or contributed to by or through, the act, omission, default or neglect of the Owner; and/or (j) any act or omission of the Owner or any other person whereby the Guarantor would or might otherwise be released or have its obligations hereunder discharged, mitigated, impaired or affected in any way whatsoever, it being agreed that nothing but payment and satisfaction in full of all rent and the due performance and observance of all terms, covenants and conditions on the part of the Resident to be paid and performed and observed shall release the Guarantor of its obligations hereunder.

2. The Guarantor hereby expressly waives notice of the acceptance of this guarantee and all notice of non-performance, non-payment or non-observance on the part of the Resident of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Lease. Without limiting or otherwise affecting the foregoing, any notice which the Owner desires to give to the Guarantor shall be sufficiently given if delivered by courier delivery to the Guarantor on a business day at the address set out on page one of the Lease.

3. The Guarantor waives any right to require the Owner to: (a) proceed against the Resident or pursue any rights or remedies against the Resident with respect to the Lease; (b) proceed against or exhaust any security of the Resident held by the Owner; or (c) pursue any other remedy whatsoever in the Owner's power.

4. The Owner has the right to enforce this Agreement regardless of the acceptance of additional security from the Resident and regardless of any release or discharge of the

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

Resident by the Owner or by others or by operation of any law.

5. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the liability of the Guarantor under this Agreement shall not and shall not be deemed to have been waived, released, discharged, impaired or affected by reason of the release or discharge of the Resident in any receivership, bankruptcy, winding-up or other creditors' proceedings or the rejection, disaffirmance or disclaimer of the Lease in any proceeding and shall continue with respect to the periods prior thereto and thereafter, for and with respect to the term as if the Lease had not been disaffirmed or disclaimed. The liability of the Guarantor shall not be affected by any repossession of the Rented Premises by the Owner; provided, however, that all payments received by the Owner from the Resident pursuant to the Lease or in respect or by virtue of the exercise of any of the Owner's rights thereunder (taking into account such deductions and expenses as are permitted under the Lease) shall be credited from time to time by the Owner against the indebtedness of the Guarantor hereunder and the Guarantor shall pay any balance owing to the Owner from time to time upon demand.

6. In the event of the termination of the Lease for any reason whatsoever or in the event of surrender, whether or not accepted by the Owner, or disclaimer of the Lease pursuant to any statute or otherwise then, at the option of the Owner, the Guarantor shall enter into a written Lease with Owner of the Rented Premises between Owner, as Owner and the Guarantor, as Resident for a term commencing at the date of such termination, surrender or disclaimer and expiring on the date on which the Lease would have expired if it had run its full term without default by Resident and without such termination, surrender or disclaimer. Such Lease shall contain the same terms and conditions as are contained in the Lease which would apply to and be in force for that portion of the term of the Lease which by the original terms of the Lease would have remained unexpired at the date of such termination, surrender or disclaimer.

7. No action or proceedings brought or instituted under this Agreement and no recovery in pursuance thereof shall be a bar or defense to any further action or proceeding which may be brought under this Agreement by reason of any further default hereunder or in the performance and observance of the terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Lease.

8. No modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless the same is in writing and is executed by both the Guarantor and the Owner.

9. The Guarantor shall, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, be bound by this Agreement in the same manner as though the Guarantor were the Resident named in the Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any performance in whole or in part by the Guarantor of its obligations hereunder or of Resident under the Lease, the Guarantor shall not have any entitlement to occupy the Rented Premises or otherwise enjoy any of the benefits to which Resident is entitled under the Lease, and the Guarantor shall not be entitled to be subrogated to any rights of Owner whatsoever.

10. All of the terms, covenants and conditions of this guarantee extend to and are binding upon the Guarantor, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and enure to the benefit of and may be enforced by the Owner, its successors and assigns, and any mortgagee, chargee, trustee under a deed of trust or other encumbrancer of all or any part of the lands and building containing the Rented Premises as referred to in the Lease.

11. If two or more individuals, corporations, partnerships or other business associations, or any combination of two or more thereof, execute this Agreement as Guarantor, the liability of each such individual, corporation, partnership or other business association hereunder shall be joint and several.

12. This Agreement constitutes the complete Agreement between the Guarantor and the Owner and none of the parties hereto shall be bound by any representations or Agreements made by any person which would in any way reduce or impair obligations of the Guarantor other than any which are expressly set out herein.

13. The obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall be assignable by the Owner and an assignment of the Lease shall constitute an assignment of the obligations of the Guarantor.

14. The Guarantor shall be bound by any account settled between the Owner and the Resident.

15. For the purposes of this Agreement, “Bankruptcy Reason” means release or discharge of the Resident in any receivership, bankruptcy, winding-up or other creditors’ proceedings or the rejection, disaffirmance, disclaimer, surrender or other termination of the Lease, in any proceedings and/or by any party whatsoever, and/or pursuant to any statute or otherwise.

16. This Agreement is governed by the laws applicable to the jurisdiction in which the Rented Premises are located. If any provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable (including a violation of the Act or Applicable Laws, as such terms are defined in the Lease) in any respect, such determination shall not impair or affect the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof, and each provision is hereby declared to be separate, severable and distinct.

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

3. ACKNOWLEDGMENT CONCERNING INSURANCE OR DAMAGE WAIVER

The Landlord is not liable for personal injury, loss or damage to your personal property or belongings, or to cover your own liability for injury, loss or damage you (or your occupants or guests) may cause others. You acknowledge that we do not maintain insurance to protect you against personal injury, loss or damage to your personal property or belongings, or to cover your own liability for injury, loss or damage you (or your occupants or guests) may cause others. You also acknowledge that by not maintaining your own personal liability insurance policy, you may be responsible to others (including us) for the full cost of any injury, loss or damage caused by your actions or the actions of your occupants or guests.

4. REQUIRED POLICY

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

The Tenant shall, during the entire period of the tenancy, at the Tenant's own cost and expense, obtain and keep in force appropriate and adequate policy or policies of insurance covering all risks, including fire and property damage, liability, including public liability and additional living expenses/rental replacement insurance in the amount of not less than $2,000,000 liability coverage. The Tenant must provide to the Landlord a copy of the policy of insurance prior to the occupancy of the rental unit by the Tenant.

5. OBTAINING INSURANCE

We may provide you with information on an insurance program that we make available to Tenants, which provides you with an opportunity to buy renter's insurance from a preferred company. However, you are free to contract for the required insurance with a provider of your choosing.

6. MISCELLANEOUS

Except as specifically stated in this Addendum, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern.

By signing this Addendum, the Landlord and the Tenant(s) agree to follow its terms.

NO-SMOKING ADDENDUM

1. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

Lease Agreement between:

Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership

(the "Landlord")

- AND -

Aidan Keaveny

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

All use of any tobacco products involving smoking, burning, or combustion of tobacco and/or Cannabis is prohibited in any portion of the Rental Community. You are entitled to receive an original of this No-Smoking Addendum after it is fully signed. Keep it in a safe place.

3. DEFINITION OF SMOKING

Smoking refers to any use or possession of a cigar, cigarette, e-cigarette, hookah, vaporizer, or pipe containing tobacco or Cannabis or a tobacco product or a Cannabis product while that tobacco, tobacco product, Cannabis or Cannabis product is burning, lighted, vaporized, or ignited, regardless of whether the person using or possessing the product is inhaling or exhaling the smoke from such product. Smoking also refers to use or possession of burning, lighted, vaporized, or ignited non-tobacco products if they are noxious, offensive, unsafe, unhealthy, or irritating to other persons.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

4. SMOKING ANYWHERE INSIDE BUILDINGS OF THE RENTAL UNIT COMMUNITY IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED

All forms and use of burning, lighted, vaporized, or ignited tobacco and/or Cannabis products and smoking of tobacco and/or Cannabis products inside any rental unit, building, or interior of any portion of the Rental Community is strictly prohibited. Any violation of the no-smoking policy is a material and substantial violation of this Addendum and the Lease.

The prohibition on use of any burning, lighted, vaporized, or ignited tobacco or Cannabis products or smoking of any tobacco or Cannabis products extends to all Tenants, their occupants, guests, invitees and all others who are present on or in any portion of the Rental Community. The no-smoking policy and rules extend to, but are not limited to, the management and leasing offices, building interiors and hallways, building common areas, rental units, exercise, pool or spa facility, all interior areas of the Rental Community, commercial shops, businesses, and spaces, work areas, and all other spaces whether in the interior of the Rental Community or in the enclosed spaces on the surrounding community grounds. Smoking of non-tobacco products which are harmful to the health, safety, and welfare of other Tenants inside any rental unit or building is also prohibited by this Addendum and other provisions of the Lease.

5. SMOKING OUTSIDE BUILDINGS OF THE RENTAL COMMUNITY

Smoking must be at least 5 meters from the buildings in the Rental Community, including administrative office buildings. Smoking on balconies, terraces, and limited common areas attached to or outside of your rental unit is not permitted. Even though smoking may be permitted in certain limited outside areas, we reserve the right to direct that you and your occupants, family, guests, and invitees cease and desist from smoking in those areas if smoke is entering the rental units or buildings or if it is interfering with the health, safety, or welfare or disturbing the quiet enjoyment, or business operations of us, other Tenants, or guests.

6. YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGES AND CLEANING

You are responsible for payment of all costs and damages to your rental unit, other Tenants' rental units, or any other portion of the Rental Community for repair, replacement, or cleaning due to smoking or smoke related damage caused by you or your occupants, family, guests, or invitees. Any costs or damages we incur related to repairs, replacement, and cleaning due to your smoking or due to your violation of the no-smoking provisions of the Lease are in excess of normal wear and tear. Smoke related damage, including but not limited to, the smell of tobacco smoke which permeates sheetrock, carpeting, wood, insulation, or other components of the rental unit or building is in excess of normal wear and tear in our smoke free Rental Community.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

7. TERMINATION OF LEASE FOR VIOLATION OF THIS ADDENDUM

We may have the right to terminate Lease for any violation of this No-Smoking Addendum. Violation of the no-smoking provisions is a material and substantial violation of the Lease. Despite the termination of the Lease, you may remain liable for rent through the end of term of the Lease or up to the date on which the rental unit is rented to a new occupant, whichever comes first.

8. EXTENT OF YOUR LIABILITY FOR LOSSES DUE TO SMOKING.

Your responsibility for damages, cleaning, loss of rental income, and loss of other economic damages under this No-Smoking Addendum are in addition to, and not in lieu of, your responsibility for any other damages or loss under the Lease or any other addendum.

9. YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONDUCT OF OCCUPANTS, FAMILY MEMBERS, AND GUESTS

You are responsible for communicating this Community's no-smoking policy and for ensuring compliance with this Addendum by your occupants, family, guests, and invitees.

10. THERE IS NO WARRANTY OF A SMOKE FREE ENVIRONMENT

It is acknowledged and agreed by the Tenant that notwithstanding efforts by the Landlord to prevent or prohibit smoking in the residential complex, including the rental units, it is not a warranty or guarantee by the Landlord of a smoke-free environment and that other Tenants, Residents, guests and invitees of the residential complex may violate this policy. The Tenant releases the Landlord and saves the Landlord harmless from any and all claims relating to smoke and agrees not to make any claim against the Landlord relating to the detection of the order of any smoke in the residential complex including the rental unit. The Tenant acknowledges that the Landlord cannot and does not covenant or represent that the Tenant will not be exposed to smoke or the odour of smoke in the residential complex and confirms that nothing herein shall require the Landlord to commence or continue any legal action with respect to the default by any person in the residential complex in relation to the matters in this Addendum.

If the Tenant or an occupant of the rental unit is entitled to smoke substances in the rental unit due to a medical exemption or for another reason as set out in Applicable Laws, the Tenant agrees that neither the Tenant, nor any guest or occupants of the rental unit shall smoke any substance in a quantity or in a manner so as to substantially interfere with the reasonable enjoyment to another Tenant in the residential complex.

This is an important and binding legal document. By signing this Addendum, you are agreeing to follow our no-smoking policy and you are acknowledging that a violation could lead to termination of your Lease. If you or someone in your household is a smoker, you should carefully consider whether you will be able to abide by the terms of this Addendum.

ADDENDUM PROHIBITING SHORT-TERM RENTAL

1. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

Lease Agreement between: Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership

(the "Landlord")

- AND -

Aidan Keaveny

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

3. SHORT TERM RENTING PROHIBITED

Without limiting the prohibition in the Lease on assignment and without limiting any of our rights or remedies, this Addendum to the Lease further supplements and defines the requirements and prohibitions contained in the Lease. You are hereby strictly prohibited from renting to any third party, or allowing occupancy by any third party, of all or any portion of the rental unit, whether for an overnight use or duration of any length, without our prior written consent in each instance. This prohibition applies to overnight stays, or any other stays arranged on Airbnb.com or other similar internet sites.

4. PROHIBITION ON LISTING OR ADVERTISING RENTAL UNIT ON OVERNIGHT RENTING WEBSITES

You agree not to list or advertise the rental unit as being available for short term rental or occupancy by others on Airbnb.com or similar internet websites. You agree that listing or advertising the rental unit on Airbnb.com or similar internet websites shall be a violation of this Addendum and a breach of your Lease.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

5. VIOLATION OF LEASE

Your Lease allows for use of your rental unit as a private residence only and strictly prohibits conducting any kind of business in, from, or involving your rental unit unless expressly permitted by Applicable Laws. Your Lease also prohibits occupancy by others for any period of time without our prior written consent. Permitting your rental unit to be used for any rental or occupancy by others (including, without limitation, for a short term), regardless of the value of consideration received or if no consideration is received, is a violation and breach of this Addendum and your Lease.

6. REMEDY FOR VIOLATION

Any violation of this Addendum constitutes a violation of the Lease, and as such we may exercise any default remedies permitted in the Lease, including termination of your tenancy, in accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws. This clause shall not be interpreted to restrict our rights to terminate your tenancy for any lawful reason, or by any lawful method.

7. TENANT LIABILITY

The Tenant acknowledges that offering and/or listing short-term rentals on AirBNB or similar Internet websites and renting all or part of the rental unit to "guests" referred by AirBNB or other similar Internet websites substantially interferes with the security of the residential complex and substantially interferes with the reasonable enjoyment of the residential complex by other Tenants. You are responsible for and shall be held liable for any and all losses, damages, and/or fines that we incur as a result of your violation of the terms of this Addendum. Further, you agree that you are responsible for and shall be held liable for any and all actions of any person(s) who occupy your rental unit in violation of the terms of this Addendum, including, but not limited to, property damage, disturbance of other Tenants, and violence or attempted violence to another person. In accordance with the Act and Applicable Laws, you agree that we shall may have the right to collect against any renter's or liability insurance policy maintained by you for any losses or damages that we incur as a result of any violation of the terms of this Addendum.

8. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Addendum is invalid or unenforceable under the Act or Applicable Laws, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Addendum. The court shall interpret the provisions herein in a manner such as to uphold the valid portions of this Addendum while preserving the intent of the parties.

COMMUNITY POLICIES, RULES AND REGULATIONS ADDENDUM

1. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

Lease Agreement between:

Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership

(the "Landlord")

- AND -

Aidan Keaveny

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

3. GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR USE OF RENTAL COMMUNITY PROPERTY AND RECREATIONAL FACILITIES

Tenant(s) permission for use of all common areas, Resident amenities, and recreational facilities (collectively, the "Amenities") located at the Rental Community is a privilege and the license to use the Amenities is granted by the Landlord to the Tenant. The license to use the Amenities is not a contractual right except as otherwise provided for in the Lease. Such permission is expressly conditioned upon Tenant's adherence to the terms of the Lease, this Addendum, and the Rental Community rules and regulations (collectively, the "Rules") in effect from time to time, and such permission may be revoked by Landlord at any time for any lawful reason. In all cases, the strictest terms of the Lease, this Addendum, or the Rules shall govern. Landlord reserves the right to set the days and hours of use for all Amenities and to change the character of or close any

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

Amenity based upon the needs of Landlord and in Landlord's sole absolute and unfettered discretion, without notice, obligation or recompense of any nature to Tenant. Landlord and management may make changes to the Rules for use of any Amenity at any time.

Additionally, Tenant(s) expressly agrees to assume all risks of every type, including but not limited to risks of personal injury or property damage, of whatever nature or severity, related to Tenant's use of the Amenities. Tenant(s) agrees to fully indemnify and to hold Landlord harmless and release and waive any and all claims, allegations, actions, damages, losses, or liabilities of every type, whether or not foreseeable, that Tenant(s) may have against Landlord and that are in any way related to or arise from such use. This provision shall be enforceable to the fullest extent of the law.

The terms of this Addendum shall also apply to Tenant(s)' occupants, agents and invitees, together with the heirs, assigns, executors, administrators, successors and legal representatives of them all, and Tenant(s) shall be solely responsible for the compliance of such persons with the Lease, this Addendum, and the Rules, and Tenant(s) shall indemnify and hold Landlord harmless from all claims of such persons as described in the preceding paragraph. The term "Landlord" shall include the management, officers, partners, employees, agents, assigns, owners, subsidiaries, and affiliates of Landlord.

4. POOL.

This Rental Community [X] DOES; [ ] DOES NOT have a pool. When using the pool, the Tenant(s) agree(s) to the following:

(a) Tenants and guests will adhere to the rules and regulations posted in the pool area and management policies.

(b) No lifeguard is provided by Landlord. All swimmers swim at their own risk. Landlord is not responsible for accidents or injuries.

(c) For their safety, Tenants should not swim alone.

(d) Pool hours are posted at the pool.

(e) Children under the minimum age (posted at the pool) must be accompanied at all times by a parent or legal guardian.

(a) Tenant(s) and guests will adhere to the Rules and other management policies concerning fire hazards, which may be revised from time to time.

(b) No person shall knowingly maintain a fire hazard.

(c) Grills, barbeques, and any other outdoor cooking or open flame devices will be used only on the ground level and will be placed a minimum of 250 feet from any building. Such devices will not be used indoors, close to combustible materials, tall grass or weeds, on exterior walls or on roofs, balconies or patios, or in other locations which may cause fires.

(d) Fireplaces: Only firewood is permitted in the fireplace. No artificial substances, such as Duraflame® logs are permitted. Ashes must be disposed of in metal containers, after ensuring the ashes are cold.

(e) Flammable or combustible liquids and fuels shall not be used or stored (including stock for sale) in rental units, near exits, stairways, breezeways, or areas normally used for the ingress and egress of people. This includes motorcycles and any apparatus or engine using flammable or combustible liquid as fuel.

(f) No person shall block or obstruct any exit, aisle, passageway, hallway, or stairway leading to or from any structure.

(g) Tenant(s) are solely responsible for fines or penalties caused by their actions in violation of local fire protection codes.

10. DISPOSING OF REGULAR, RECYCLED, AND ORGANIC WASTE

[X]This Rental Community has individual garbage chute rooms. Tenant(s) agree(s) to use the electronic tri-sorter garbage chutes to dispose of regular, recycled, and organic waste. Cardboard and large items must be brought to the designated waste disposal area(s) for removal. Leaving regular, recycled, and/or organic waste in the individual garbage chute rooms or any other area(s) of the property is strictly prohibited. Tenant(s) may be required to pay all reasonable costs of cleaning, sanitizing, and disposal incurred by us to treat the individual garbage chute rooms or other affected areas of the property.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

[ ]Tenant(s) agrees to bring all garbage, organics, recycling including cardboard and large items to the designated waste disposal area(s) for removal.

11. EXTERMINATING

Unless prohibited by Applicable Laws or otherwise stated in the Lease, Landlord may conduct extermination operations in Tenant(s)' rental unit several times a year and as needed to prevent insect infestation. Landlord will notify Tenant(s) in advance, in writing, of extermination in Tenant(s)' rental unit, and give Tenant(s) instructions for the preparation of the rental unit and safe contact with insecticides. Tenant(s) will be responsible for preparing the rental unit for extermination in accordance with Landlord's instructions. Tenant(s) agrees to perform the tasks required by Landlord on the day of interior extermination to ensure the safety and effectiveness of the extermination. Tenant(s) agrees to comply with the requirements and obligations of any instructions or preparation sheet that might be provided to the Tenant(s) by the Landlord's pest-control contractor. These tasks will include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Clean in all cabinets, drawers and closets in kitchen and pantry.

(b) If cockroaches have been seen in closets, remove contents from shelves and floor.

(c) Remove infants and young children from the rental unit.

(d) Remove pets or place them in bedrooms and notify Landlord of such placement.

(e) Remove chain locks or other types of obstruction on day of service.

(f) Cover fish tanks and turn off their air pumps.

(g) Do not wipe out cabinets after treatment.

(h) In the case of suspected or confirmed bed bug infestation, Tenant(s) will agree to the following:

(i) Tenant(s) will wash all clothing, bed sheets, draperies, towels, etc. in extremely hot water.

(j) Tenant(s) will thoroughly clean premises, all luggage, handbags, shoes, and clothes.

(k) Tenant(s) will cooperate with Landlord's cleaning efforts for all mattresses and seat cushions or other upholstered furniture and will dispose of same if requested.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

If an insect infestation is caused by the Tenant(s)' pets, the Tenant(s)' possessions or due to unsanitary conditions caused by the Tenant(s), the Tenant(s) may be responsible for the entire cost of extermination operations in the Tenant's rental unit. Tenants are responsible for notifying Landlord in writing prior to extermination of any anticipated health or safety concerns related to extermination and the use of insecticides.

12. DRAPES AND SHADES

Drapes or shades installed by Tenant(s), when allowed, must be lined in white and present a uniform exterior appearance.

13. WATER BEDS

Tenant(s) shall not have water beds or other water furniture in the rental unit without prior written permission of Landlord which may be withheld or conditioned in the Landlord's absolute discretion.

14. BALCONY OR PATIO

Balconies and patios shall be kept neat and clean at all times. No rugs, towels, laundry, clothing, appliances, barbecues, or other items shall be stored, hung, or draped on railings or other portions of balconies or patios.

15. SIGNS

Tenant(s) shall not display any signs, exterior lights, or markings on rental unit. No awnings or other projections shall be attached to the outside of the building of which rental unit is a part.

16. WAIVER/SEVERABILITY CLAUSE

No waiver of any provision herein, or in any Rules, shall be effective unless granted by the Landlord in writing. If any court of competent jurisdiction finds that any clause, phrase, or provision of this Addendum is invalid for any reason whatsoever, this finding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Addendum.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

By signing this Addendum, the Landlord and the Tenant(s) agree to follow its terms.

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

For purposes of this Addendum, the term "Premises" shall include the rental unit, all common areas, all other rental units on the property or any common areas or other rental units on or about other property owned by or managed by the Landlord. The parties hereby amend and supplement the Lease as follows:

Tenant(s), members of the Tenant's household, Tenant's guests, and all other persons affiliated with the Tenant:

(a) Shall not engage in any illegal or criminal activity on or about the Premises. The phrase, "illegal or criminal activity" shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

i. The unlawful manufacturing, selling, using, storing, keeping, purchasing, or giving of an illegal or controlled substance or paraphernalia as defined in applicable laws, including pursuant to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (S.C. 1996, c. 19).

ii. Violation of any Applicable Laws governing the use, possession, sale, manufacturing, and distribution of illegal drugs. Engaging in any act intended to facilitate any type of criminal activity or drug-related activity. Permitting the Premises to be used for or facilitating any type of criminal activity or drug related activity, regardless of whether the individual engaging in such activity is a member of the Tenant's household, or a guest. Engaging in any illegal activity, including prostitution, gang activity, threatening or intimidating activities, assault, or the unlawful discharge of a weapon, on or near the Premises including pursuant to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act (S.C. 1996, c. 19).

iii. Any breach of the Lease that otherwise jeopardizes the health, safety, and welfare of any person, or involving imminent, actual, or substantial property damage.

iv. Engaging in or committing any act that would be a violation of the Landlord's screening criteria for criminal conduct or which would have provided Landlord with a basis for denying Tenant's application due to criminal conduct.

v. Engaging in any activity that constitutes waste, nuisance, or unlawful use.

vi. Engaging in, or allowing, any behavior that is associated with drug activity, including but not limited to having excessive vehicle or foot traffic associated with the rental unit.

(b) Agree that any violation of the above provisions constitutes a violation of the Lease and may result in immediate termination of the Lease.

(c) Unless otherwise provided by the Act and Applicable Laws, proof of violation of any criminal law shall not require a criminal conviction.

By signing this Addendum, the Landlord and the Tenant(s) agree to follow its terms.

BED BUG ADDENDUM

1. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

Lease Agreement between:

Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership

(the "Landlord")

- AND -

Aidan Keaveny

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

3. PURPOSE

This Addendum supplements the Lease and addresses situations related to bed bugs which may be discovered infesting the rental unit or personal property in the rental unit. You understand that we rely on your representations to us in this Addendum.

4. INSPECTION

You agree that you: (Check one)

[X] have inspected the rental unit prior to move- in and that you did not observe any evidence of bed bugs or bed bug infestation; OR [ ] will inspect the rental unit within 48 hours after move-in/renewal and notify us of any bed bugs or bed bug infestation.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

5. INFESTATIONS

You agree that you have read all of the information in this Addendum about bed bugs and: (Check one)

[X] You are not aware of any infestation or presence of bed bugs in your current or previous apartments, home or rental unit. You agree that you are not aware of any bed bug infestation or presence in any of your furniture, clothing, personal property or possessions.

[ ] You agree that if you previously lived anywhere that had a bed bug infestation that all of your personal property (including furniture, clothing and other belongings) has been treated by a licensed pest control professional. You agree that such items are free of further infestation. If you disclose a previous experience of bed bug infestation, we can review documentation of the treatment and inspect your personal property and possessions to confirm the absence of bed bugs. You agree that any previous bed bug infestation which you may have experienced is disclosed below:

6. ACCESS FOR INSPECTION AND PEST TREATMENT

You agree to allow us and our pest control agents access to the rental unit at reasonable times and upon prior written notice delivered in accordance with the Act, to inspect for or treat bed bugs. You and your family members, occupants, guests, and invitees must cooperate and agree not to interfere with inspections or treatments. We have the right to select any licensed pest control professional to treat the rental unit and building, in addition to the method of treating the rental unit, building and common areas for bed bugs. We may also inspect and treat adjacent or neighbouring rental units to the infestation even if those rental units are not the source or cause of the known infestation. You are responsible for and must, at your own expense, have your own personal property, furniture, clothing and possessions treated according to accepted treatment methods established by a licensed pest control firm that we approve. You must do so as close as possible to the time we treated the rental unit. If you fail to do so, you may be in default of the Lease. You agree not to treat the rental unit for a bed bug infestation on your own.

7. NOTIFICATION

You must notify us promptly:

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

(a) of any known or suspected bed bug infestation or presence in the rental unit, or in any of your clothing, furniture or personal property.

(b) of any recurring or unexplained bites, stings, irritations, or sores of the skin or body which you believe is caused by bed bugs, or by any condition or pest you believe is in the rental unit.

(c) if you discover any condition or evidence that might indicate the presence or infestation of bed bugs, or of any confirmation of bed bug presence by a licensed pest control professional or other authoritative source.

8. COOPERATION

If we confirm the presence or infestation of bed bugs, you must cooperate and coordinate with us and our pest control agents to treat and eliminate the bed bugs. You must follow all directions from us and our agents to clean and treat the rental unit and building that are infested. You must remove or destroy personal property that cannot be treated or cleaned as close as possible to the time we treated the rental unit. Any items you remove from the rental unit must be disposed of off-site and not in the property's trash receptacles. If we confirm the presence or infestation of bed bugs in your rental unit, we have the right to require you to temporarily vacate the rental unit and remove all furniture, clothing and personal belongings in order for us to perform pest control services. If you fail to cooperate with us, we may have the right to begin termination procedures under the Lease as well as exercise all other rights and remedies available to us under the Lease.

9. RESPONSIBILITIES

You may be required to pay all reasonable costs of cleaning and pest control treatments incurred by us to treat your rental unit for bed bugs if their presence is caused by inadequate housekeeping, your pets, your possessions or unsanitary conditions caused by you. If we confirm the presence or infestation of bed bugs after you vacate your rental unit, you may be responsible for the cost of cleaning and pest control treatments.

10. TRANSFERS

If we allow you to transfer to another rental unit in the Community because of the presence of bed bugs, you must have your personal property and possessions treated according to accepted treatment methods or procedures established by a licensed pest control professional. You must provide proof of such cleaning and treatment to our satisfaction.

Bed bugs, with a typical lifespan of 6 to 12 months, are wingless, flat, broadly oval-shaped insects. Capable of reaching the size of an apple seed at full growth, bed bugs are distinguishable by their reddish-brown color, although after feeding on the blood of humans and warm-blooded animals, their sole food source, the bugs assume a distinctly blood-red hue until digestion is complete.

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

(a) Bed bugs do not discriminate

Bed bugs increased presence across North America in recent decades can be attributed largely to a surge in international travel and trade. It is no surprise then that bed bugs have been found time and time again to have taken up residence in some of the fanciest hotels and apartment buildings in some of the most expensive neighbourhoods.

Nonetheless, false claims that associate the presence of bed bugs with poor hygiene and uncleanliness have caused rental housing Residents, out of shame, to avoid notifying owners of their presence. This serves only to enable the spread of bed bugs.

While bed bugs are, by their very nature, more attracted to clutter, they're certainly not discouraged by cleanliness.

Bottom line: bed bugs know no social and economic bounds; claims to the contrary are false.

There exists no scientific evidence that bed bugs transmit disease. In fact, federal agencies tasked with addressing pests of public health concern, namely Health Canada, Public Health Agency of Canada and the Canadian Centre for Occupational Health and Safety have refused to elevate bed bugs to the threat level posed by disease transmitting pests.

(b) Identifying bed bugs

Bed bugs can often be found in, around and between:

i. Bedding

ii. Bed frames

iii. Mattress seams

iv. Upholstered furniture, especially under cushions and along seams

v. Around, behind and under wood furniture, especially along areas where drawers slide

vi. Curtains and draperies

vii. Along window and door frames viii. Ceiling and wall junctions

ix. Crown moldings

x. Behind and around wall hangings and loose wallpaper

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

xi. Between carpeting and walls

xii. Cracks and crevices in walls and floors

xiii. Inside electronic devices, such as smoke and carbon monoxide detectors

xiv. Because bed bugs leave some persons with itchy welts strikingly similar to those caused by fleas and

xv. mosquitoes, the origination of such markings often go misdiagnosed. However, welts caused by bed bugs often times appear in succession and on exposed areas of skin, such as the face, neck and arms. In some cases, an individual may not experience any visible reaction resulting from direct contact with bed bugs.

xvi. While bed bugs typically prefer to act at night, they often do not succeed in returning to their hiding spots without leaving traces of their presence through fecal markings of a red to dark brown color, visible on or near beds. Blood stains tend also to appear when the bugs have been squashed, usually by an unsuspecting host in their sleep. And, because they shed, it is not uncommon for skin casts to be left behind in areas typically frequented by bed bugs.

(c) Preventing bed bug encounters when traveling

Because humans serve as bed bugs' main mode of transportation, it is extremely important to be mindful of bed bugs when away from home. Experts agree that the spread of bed bugs across all regions of North America is largely attributed to an increase in international travel and trade.

Travelers are therefore encouraged to take a few minutes upon arriving to their temporary destination to thoroughly inspect their accommodations, so as to ensure that any uninvited guests are detected before the decision is made to unpack.

Because bed bugs can easily travel from one room to another, it is also recommended that travelers thoroughly inspect their luggage and belongings for bed bugs before departing for home.

(d) Bed bug do's and don'ts

i. Do not bring used furniture from unknown sources into your rental unit. Countless bed bug infestations have stemmed directly from the introduction into a Resident's unit of second-hand and abandoned furniture. Unless the determination can be made with absolute certainty that a piece of second-hand furniture is bed bug-free, Residents should assume that the reason a seemingly nice-looking leather couch, for example, is sitting curbside, waiting to be hauled off to the landfill, may very well be due to the fact that it is teeming with bed bugs.

ii. Do address bed bug sightings immediately. Rental housing Residents who suspect the presence of bed bugs in their unit must immediately notify the Landlord.

iii. Do not attempt to treat bed bug infestations. Under no circumstance should you attempt to eradicate bed bugs. Health hazards associated with the misapplication of traditional and non-traditional, chemical-based insecticides and pesticides pose too great a risk to you and your neighbours.

iv. Do comply with eradication protocol. If the determination is made that your unit is indeed playing host to bed bugs, you must comply with the bed bug eradication protocol set forth by both the Landlord and their designated pest management company.

By signing this Addendum, the Landlord and the Tenant(s) agree to follow its terms.

MOULD ADDENDUM

1. PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT

Lease Agreement between:

Greystar Canada Property Management Services As Agent For Monone Calgary Limited Partnership

(the "Landlord")

- AND -

Aidan Keaveny

(together, the "Tenants" and each a "Tenant")

2. RENTAL UNIT DESCRIPTION

1235 Macleod Trail SE, #S2205, Calgary, AB T2G 2K2

This Addendum constitutes an addendum to the above-described Lease for the above-described premises and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Lease. If a term herein conflicts with any term or provision of: (i) the residential tenancy act applicable to the Province in which the rental property is located (referred to as the "Act" herein) and all other applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws, by-laws, rules and regulations, ordinances, orders, codes, and requirements of governmental or other authorities having jurisdiction in force from time to time (collectively, the "Applicable Laws"), the term is void (not valid or legally binding) and it cannot be enforced; and (ii) any other Schedule or Addendum to the Lease, the terms of this Addendum shall govern. All capitalized terms used, but not defined in this Addendum shall have the respective meanings set out in the Lease and Schedule A thereto.

3. ABOUT MOULD

Mould is found virtually everywhere in our environment—both indoors and outdoors and in both new and old structures. Moulds are naturally occurring microscopic organisms which reproduce by spores and have existed practically from the beginning of time. All of us have lived with mould spores all our lives. Without moulds we would all be struggling with large amounts of dead organic matter. Mould breaks down organic matter in the environment and uses the end product for its food. Mould spores (like plant pollen) spread through the air and are commonly transported by shoes, clothing and other materials. When excess moisture is present inside a dwelling, mould can grow.

4. PREVENTING MOULD BEGINS WITH YOU

In order to minimize the potential for mould growth in your rental unit, you must do the following:

(a) Keep your rental unit clean - particularly the kitchen, the bathroom(s), carpets and floors. Regular vacuuming, mopping, and using a household cleaner to clean hard surfaces is important to remove the household dirt and debris that harbor mould or food for mould. Immediately throw away mouldy food.

(b) Remove visible moisture accumulation on windows, walls, ceilings, floors, and other surfaces as soon as reasonably possible. Look for leaks in washing machine hoses and discharge lines – especially if the leak is large enough for water to infiltrate nearby walls. Turn on any exhaust fans in the bathroom and kitchen when you start showering or cooking with open pots. When showering, be sure to keep the shower curtain fully closed around the tub or fully close the shower doors. Also, experts recommend that after taking a shower or bath, you: (1) wipe moisture off of shower walls, shower doors, the bathtub and the bathroom floor; (2) leave the bathroom door open until all moisture on the mirrors and bathroom walls and tile surfaces has dissipated; and (3) hang up your towels and bath mats so they will completely dry out.

(c) Promptly notify us in writing about any heating or cooling system problems you discover. Follow our rules, if any, regarding replacement of air filters. Also, it is recommended that you periodically open windows and doors on days when the outdoor weather is dry (i.e., humidity is below 50 percent) to help humid areas of your rental unit dry out.

(d) Promptly notify us in writing about any signs of water leaks, water infiltration or mould.

(e) Keep the thermostat set to automatically circulate air in the event temperatures rise to or beyond 26 degrees Celsius.

5. IN ORDER TO AVOID MOULD GROWTH, it is important to prevent excessive moisture build up in your rental unit. Failure to promptly pay attention to leaks and moisture that might accumulate on rental unit surfaces or that might get inside walls or ceilings can encourage mould growth. Prolonged moisture can result from a wide variety of sources, such as:

(a) rainwater leaking from roofs, windows, doors and outside walls, as well as flood waters rising above floor level;

(b) overflows from showers, bathtubs, toilets, lavatories, sinks, washing machines, dehumidifiers, refrigerator or A/C drip pans or clogged up A/C condensation lines;

(c) leaks from plumbing lines or fixtures, and leaks into walls from bad or missing grouting/caulking around showers, tubs or sinks;

Document digitally signed using RENTCafe eSignature services. Document ID: 173474

(d) washing machine hose leaks, plant watering overflows, pet urine, cooking spills, beverage spills and steam from excessive open-pot cooking;

(e) leaks from clothes dryer discharge vents (which can put a lot of moisture into the air); and

(f) insufficient drying of carpets, carpet pads, shower walls and bathroom floors.

6. IF SMALL AREAS OF MOULD HAVE ALREADY OCCURRED ON NON-POROUS SURFACES (such as quartz, ceramic tile, Formica, vinyl flooring, metal, wood or plastic), Health Canada recommends that you clean up small areas of mould by following the proper procedures and use the right protective equipment. Unless the mould growth is on smooth surfaces such as bathroom tiles, surface cleaning will not eliminate the problem. In most cases you can clean up medium areas of mould if you follow the proper procedures and use the right protective equipment. Materials damaged by mould must be physically removed and disposed of under safe conditions. However, it is important to seek professional assistance if there is a large mould problem or if mould comes back after cleaning. Susceptible individuals such as pregnant women, infants, children, the elderly, (or pets) and occupants with asthma, allergies or other health problems should not be in or near the area where the mould is being cleaned up. A vacuum cleaner with a high- efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter can be used to help remove non-visible mould products from items, such as fibers in sofas, chairs, drapes and carpets – provided the fibers are completely dry. Machine washing or dry cleaning will remove mould from clothes.

7. DO NOT CLEAN OR APPLY BIOCIDES TO: (1) visible mould on porous surfaces, such as sheetrock walls or ceilings, or (2) large areas of visible mould on non-porous surfaces. Instead, notify us in writing.

8. COMPLIANCE

It is our goal to maintain a quality living environment for our Residents. To help achieve this goal, it is important to work together to minimize any mould growth in your rental unit. Complying with this Addendum will help prevent mould growth in your rental unit, and we will be able to respond correctly if problems develop that could lead to mould growth. If you have questions regarding this Addendum, please contact us at the management office or at the phone number shown in your Lease.

If you fail to comply with this Addendum, you can be held responsible for property damage to the rental unit and any health problems that may result. We can’t fix problems in your rental unit unless we know about them.
